Secretary's Report - November 1, 2020

12 members were dropped from the PMCM roster last quarter for a lack of dues payments after many attempts to contact and collect.
Rag Pickers have been returned twice from Michael Vicari, Santa Ana, CA and he was dropped this issue. If anyone has any details on Michael please share them with the Secretary.

Dues notices start today for 2021. Please send the insert and your check for $12 to the address below. Each one sent in from this notice saves us all from stamps and mailing expenses.

I would like to get everyone's email so we can get messages out to everyone in a more efficient manner starting in 2021. These will not be shared outside of the PMCM files. Please send your email with your 2021 remittances or state No Email if you do not participate in that technology.
Thanks,
Dave.

CLUB NEWS: I attended a Zoom meeting of the CCCC organization. The technology worked very well and was a lot of fun. We visited with club members and a show-and-tell event was included. Members were from as far away as the West coast. If you'd like to try a Zoom meeting please send an email to me and we'll see what we can do for a December meeting as MSNS, like other groups, has had to cancel the annual Thanksgiving show.

EDITORS NOTES: I continue to do my price reporting for Bank Note Reporter and prices seem to be moving up. High-end notes are strong but there are bargains in the Very Fine area. I could use some articles if anyone out there has material to share with us. I continue to watch the Heritage Tuesday night auctions and picked up some interesting Detroit Bank notes from the second issue which is quite scarce. Check out this resource if you haven't tried it yet. It is rich in Confederate and Obsolete notes.

OUR COVER: Our cover this issue is pretty amazing...at least to me. It is a proof note on the 25¢ issue of the Detroit Mayor and Aldermen notes issued in the late 1830's and early 1840's. These notes usually come in rough shape, but this one is a proof and a 64 grade. My thought is perhaps it was pressed as it has nice margins and is a really attractive note.

PRESIDENT'S COLUMN: I continue to wrestle with the Covid virus effect on our hobby. I am crossing my fingers that we'll have a Central States show this coming April. FUN has the following on their website 11/21/20:

FUN 66 Will Happen in Orlando, Florida

"The Officers and Board of Directors of the Florida United Numismatists have voted to proceed with FUN 66. The Orange County Convention Center will be our host, Cindy Wibker and Matt Adams will be your Convention Coordinators. Tables are selling quickly so get your bourse apps in to assure your spot at FUN 66."

Perhaps with the presidential election decided we will get some more solid predictions on the course we will follow. We'll certainly know more for the final issue of the year.

The Zegers/Winograd Project

Submitted By: Ed Zegers

The Zegers/Winograd Currency Project began when the Bureau of Engraving and Printing (BEP) monthly production reports (MPR) for June and July of 2016 itemized the $1 production of Series 2013 B-Star Federal Reserve Notes in Fort Worth, TX. I realized that the 2013 $1 DC B-Star Replacement Notes were already available because I owned some. My next move was to confirm that the October and November 2014 MPR had published a printing of series 2013 $1 B-Star in Washington, DC.

A phone conversation about the double production anomaly with "Mr. Karol Winowgrad" of Jacksonville, FL helped to satisfy my discovery. Excitedly, we discussed just how difficult, yet amazing it would be to be able to obtain two identical circulating $1 Star Replacement FRN's from the same series with an exact green FRN serial number produced in two-different BEP plants 4-years apart!

We recognized that this was the first time EVER that BEP had a 2-plant event of this significance and that this was a unique opportunity. So, together we decided to search and save all our series 2013 $1 B-Stars and associated data in a spreadsheet record of reports as well as being able to share our discoveries (in-real-time) via internet email.

We then connected with several other serious paper money collectors and enlisted them in our project: Jay C., Takoma/Lakewood, WA.; Greg M., Houston, TX.; Greg S., Newport News, VA.; Rich M., NYC, NY. It was slow going at first.

As time and the years progressed, articles were written and sent to the Society of Paper Money Collectors discussing the BEP blunder and our project. However, it was not until late fall of 2018 (four years later) that we came very close to making a matched pair. Two notes were found which were only a single digit off as reported in The SPMC Journal (Vol VIII, No 3, #321). This was BIG-NEWS for us. It was also about this time that we lost Greg M. to cancer. He was our Face and Back Plate-Serial Number records go-to source.

After the project history, information, and details which our combined efforts had produced was published in a Bank Note Reporter article by Peter Huntoon. New contributors like Craig R., Las Vegas, NV, DM, MI, RKG, VA, and WR Netts, MS added data to our records, but still no exact B -* matches were made. Then, in October of 2019 (five years of searching) JC-WA informed us of his find from series 2013 $1 B04175975 DC note (top) and B04175975* FW (bottom). This First Matched Pair were each located in 100-note bank repacks.

Finally, our Project had found and scan-recorded the first discovered pair of a NEW ERROR TYPE. Remember, it takes two Star Replacement Notes of the Same Federal Reserve Denomination, ($1), of the Same Series (2013), in the Same FR District (B), from Different BEP Printing Plants (DC and FW) in order to make One Complete Matched Pair! (Identical Twin $1 Green Serial Star-Replacement Matched Pair!).

BEP Records show that in 2014 the DC-BEP plant printed series 2013 $1 B -Star runs;

Run1 0000 0001 through 0025 0000	(250k)	Short-run
Run2 0320 0001 through 0640 0000	(3.2m)
Run3 0640 0001 through 0960 0000	(3.2m)

Then, 4-years later, in 2016, the FW-BEP plant printed duplicate $1 FRN B -Stars; (see note*)

Run1 0000 0001 through 0320 0000	(3.2m)
Run2 0320 0001 through 0640 0000	(3.2m)
Run3 0640 0001 through 0960 0000	(3.2m)

Note* Only the first 250k of the FW run1 serials can be possible matches due to the short-run of 250,000 DC B-Star notes. The total number of series 2013 $1 B-Star FRN's printed (which are possible matches) for DC & FW BEP Facilities is; r1/500k, plus r2/6.4m, plus r3/6.4m = 13,300,000 (not the full 16,250,000 notes produced).

The Zegers/Winograd Project has also identified Face and Back Plate data for r1, 2, & 3 of the fifty (50) Positions (A1 through J5) of the duplicate LEPE printings (16,250,000 notes):

DC Face Plate Serials 15, 16, 17 DC Back Plate Serials 1, 2, 3
FW Face Plate Serials 105, 106, 107 FW Back Plate Serials 84, 85, 86, & 90, 91, 92.

No Series 2013 r1 or r3 matched-pairs have been identified in our data... A total of eight (8) Series 2013 r2 matched-pairs are attributed to our Project through 8.21.2020.

Four-pair are now awaiting PMG certification (which would have been accomplished in March 2020 at the Baltimore Coin Show) had not the Covid-19 Issue caused the show cancellation and delay for certification.

The only difference in the two identical 2013 B-* notes below is in the lower right corner "J17" (top) and "FWJ106" (bottom) and the Back-Plate serial numbers.

PS. If you are interested in Errors, you had better hurry as the series 2013 B-* notes are now almost six-years into production and are rapidly being replaced with new notes.

By the way, my personal pair (and Karol's) were a gift from some of the Zegers/Winograd Project's generous members (and friends) as a reward for spearheading this project... Thank you!

The Great Lakes Log Review

By: Dave Gelwicks

Following the Peter White vanity signature article in the last Rag Picker I was given a page written for the Great Lakes Log Volume III regarding Peter White. The page is unknown to the general public as Volume III never went to print.

Great Lakes Log

was at the "Soo" during the first excitement over the discovery of copper and helped build a forge and open a mine at Marquette, Michigan.

Later, he opened a store, sold insurance, real estate and also opened a bank. President Buchanan appointed him Registar of the Land Office and Collector of the Port of Marquette.

Peter White was also a member of Michigan's legislature and was instrumental in persuading the government to give grant lands for a railroad and pressed Congress to build the Sault Canal.

A director of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company from 1891 until his death in 1908, White was one of the most celebrated figures in the history of Michigan's upper peninsula.

On September 13, 1974, Peter White became a member of the Marine Hall of Fame, at Sault Ste Marie, Michigan.

Great Lakes Logs were panels or snippets written by John Lamour of Monroe, Michigan for newspapers and publications serving the shipping industry along the Great Lakes from 1967 to at least 1978.

Lamour's pages became so popular amongst the mariners of that era that his logs were accumulated and published into the 53 page Volume I in 1971 and the next 100 pages as Volume II in 1973. His Great Lakes Logs were printed by the family business, Lamour Printing, 123 Front Street, Monroe.

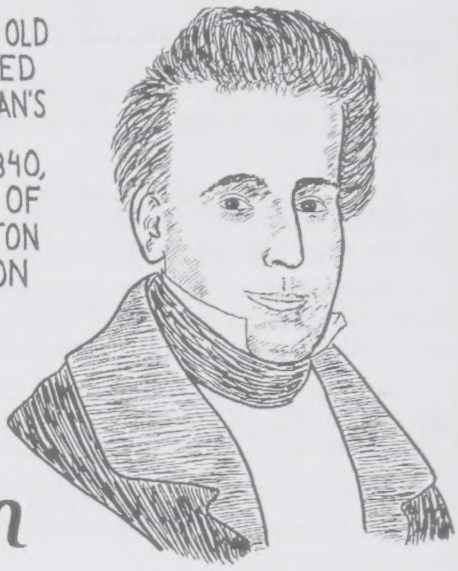
DOUGLASS HOUGHTON, A 29 YEAR OLD PHYSICIAN FROM NEW YORK, IS CREDITED WITH DISCOVERING COPPER IN MICHIGAN'S UPPER PENINSULA.

AS EARLY AS 1840, MICHIGAN ESTABLISHED THE OFFICE OF STATE GEOLOGIST AND YOUNG HOUGHTON WAS APPOINTED BY GOVERNOR MASON AS THE STATE'S FIRST GEOLOGIST.



Douglass Houghton

Father of U.S. Copper Mining

HIS DECEMBER, 1840, REPORT THAT "ORES OF COPPER ARE ABUNDANT" SET THE STAGE FOR THE "BOOM" WHICH WAS TO FOLLOW.

ALTHOUGH DOUGLASS HOUGHTON'S DISCOVERY LEAD TO THE CREATION OF A UNITED STATES COPPER INDUSTRY WHICH WOULD SOMEDAY PRODUCE $332,000,000.00 IN DIVIDENDS ALONE, HE DIED PENNILESS WHEN HIS SMALL BOAT WAS SWAMPED OFF EAGLE HARBOR, MICHIGAN, DURING AN OCTOBER STORM IN 1845.
